This book contains a powerful project with tools for teaching and celebrating human rights in classrooms, assemblies, after-school programs, youth groups, music classes, recreation centers, corporate events, senior centers, camps, public events and fundraisers.

These materials were created for activity directors, teachers of music, art, dance, social studies, and ethics, singers, dancers, parents, family gatherings, senior citizens, and multimedia producers.

This project is based on this important world agreement

Every Man, Woman, and Child

a musical presentation of
THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

by
MERRILL COLLINS

"I have an unyielding belief that all people yearn for certain things: the ability to speak your mind and have a say in how you are governed, confidence in the rule of law and the equal administration of justice, government that is transparent and doesn't steal from the people, the freedom to live as you choose. These are not just American ideas. They are human rights. And that is why we will support them everywhere."

—Barack H. Obama
